

I pay for XM radio. Therefore, because this is a subscription service the FCC needs to keep their hands off. Stop listening to your lobbyists and bending over backwards to make sure you screw over a lot of people to please a few. Don't ruin what people pay for just like you have done to FM with your censorship. This is something people pay money for, don't screw them over.